

How Can You Make A Difference? VOLUNTEER!

La Casa, Inc.

Learn New Skills and Make
New Friends

Do you ...

- have some time to spare
- have the willingness to learn
- want to change society's attitudes to violence
- have some skills you which would like to develop

If you volunteer with us, you will

- contribute to a change in our society
- develop the knowledge to help people and our agency
- meet people from different backgrounds who share a common purpose

La Casa volunteers opportunities range from one-day projects to long-term commitments. We have programs in several different programs and will help you find a volunteer position that suits your interests and schedule. Volunteers are vital to La Casa and are such an integral part of our organization! We would not be able to provide the many services to domestic violence victims and their families without your help.

La Casa volunteers receive an introductory orientation and training.

Come join the many women and men from all walks of life, variety of professions, diverse backgrounds and interests who share a common interest to change our community for the better.
